It is said that Wint. Reynolds rather suntsted an old chap who lives in the extreme western part of this town, by refusing to ride with him, after repeated invitations. The fact is. Wint, had been off painting, and although the old man drove a good team, and had no load, Wint. didn't want to ride for fear of daubing him with paint. That's all there was of it. It was not because Wint, was in a hurry, at ail.

An old man, some 70 years of age, came to town on foot, not long since, and hought three pecks of clover seed of Ike Conner, Of all kinds can be had by applying paying therefor at the rate of $8.50 per bushel, and started for his home with the seed on his back. When he had nearly reached his destination, be met in acquaint- CARRIAGES 2 BUCCHES old rear said he was growing young every day. "Why," said he "I can walk as well as I could 10 cears ago, and this bag of clover seed don't feel a lift heavier than it did when I started from town," and away he went toward home as fast as he could tridge. The fact was, there was a fixed bulg in the buy and he had been sewing seed all the eny from lown, and had only about four quart- left when he reached his domicile. He coun't swear, became no words could do the matter justice.

An inventive genius of the Lee district, has devised a horse-thief alarm, that is bound to take the cake. It is very simple and cheep. He takes three cow-bells and att or no sale, tocks them to springs and wires, placed upon the bach, winds them up with a grindstone crank, so that when the thief opens the discrement they ring for all that is out, mittil the run down which is from one to two house, according to the length of the spring. This gives the farmer ample time to get ass, tall over a couple of cocking chairs, get and of doors and with his dog and gun, into cose the thief. The other night a neighther throught he would try the muchine, after the new more had refined to rest, so he went dow and opened the door and out went the Let. for all they were worth. HOW WATCHES ARE MADE.

In a Solid Gold Water, aside from the necessary thickness for engraving and polishing, a large proportion of metal is needed only to stiffen and hold the engraved portions in place, and supply strength.

The surplus gold is actually needless. In Duffin, deceased. James Boss' Patent Gold Watch Cases this WASTE is saved, and SOLIDITY and STRENGTH increased by a simple process, at one-half the cost. A plate of solin GOLD is soldered on each side of a plate of hard nickel composition metal, and the three are then passed between polished steel rollers. From this the cases, backs, centers, bezels, etc., are cut and shaped by dies and formers. The gold is thick enough to admit of all kinds of chasing, engraving and engine turning. These cases have been worn perfectly smooth by use without removing the gold. This is the only case made under this process. Each case is accompanied with a valid guarantes signed by the manufacturers warranting it to wear 20 years. 150,000 of these Cases now carried in the United States and Canada.
